

A:
and then some
at the eleventh hour

B:
be in and out
beat around the bush
beat one's brains out
bent out of shape
blabbermouth
blow one's top
the bottom line
blow one's top
break someone's heart
bull-headed
burn the midnight oil
by the skin of one's teeth

C:
call it a day
catch some Zs
can't make heads or tails of something change one's mind
crash course
Cut it out!
Cool it!

D:
do a bang-up job
down in the dumps
drag one's feet

E:
Easy does it!
elbow grease

F:
far-fetched
feel blue
feel puny
fender-bender

G:
get going
get on one's nerves
get one's wires crossed get out of hand
get up and go
go with the flow
grab a bite

H:
head honcho
hit the books
hit the hay
hit the sack

I:
in over one's head
inside out
in the black
in the red
in time

J:
jump all over someone
jump the gun
jump to conclusion

K:
keep in touch
a klutz
a know-it-all

know something inside out

L:
leave well enough alone
Let sleeping dogs lie.
Live and let live.
lose track of a low blow

M:
macho
make a mountain out of a mole hill can't make heads or tails of make up one's mind

N:
No way!
Not on your life!
now and then

O:
on the cutting edge
on the dot
once in a while

P:
pay the piper
pooped (adj.)
pull an all-nighter

Q:
a quick study

R:
R and R
rain or shine
rain cats and dogs
read someone's mind
rub someone the wrong way

S: schmooze
sooner or later
shoot the breeze
state of the art
stay in touch
Step on it!

T:
take it easy
tell a white lie
tight-fisted
a tightwad
two-faced

U:
under the weather
until hell freezes over until you're blue in the face up-to-date

W:
Was my face red!
wear out one's welcome
wet behind the ears
What for?
What's up?
wishy-washy
with bells on
would just as soon

Y:
a yes-man
You don't say!
You've got to be kidding!

Z:
Zip your lip!